Dear Colleagues,

It is a great pleasure to invite and welcome you to participate in the Uro-Onco Pathology Masterclass being organised by the Department of Uro-Oncology and Robotic Surgery, and Department of Pathology, Kokilaben Dhirubhai Ambani Hospital and Medical Research Institute, Mumbai from 23rd to 25th November, 2018.

A sound clinico-pathological correlation should form the cornerstone for the diagnosis of urological cancers and gaining more information helps better one's standards in patient care. This masterclass is a step forward in learning about latest advances in uro-onco pathology and its application in patient care from the best in the field like Dr Jonathan Epstein and Dr Mahul Amin.

We cordially invite all of you to join us and look forward to welcome you in Mumbai for this magnificent scientific event.
